

The Rail Cybersecurity Framework

Miss Sebnem Kurklu¹

¹*Aurizon*

Rail industry took a proactive approach to developing the first Australian Standard for Rail Cyber Security with assistance of RISSB. They considered the challenges of interconnected operational technology and information technology systems and promoted a risk based approach to uplifting capability across board, even between competitors. You'll walk away from this session with not so secret secrets of running a successful Cyber Security Program and improving industry collaboration.