

Securing digital evidence in cybercrimes

Nathan Green¹

¹*Australian Federal Police*

This presentation will be focused on the forensic aspects of a data seizure event, through the lens of the AFP. It will provide information that will result in not only a streamlined interaction with law enforcement, but also maximize the chances that electronic evidence on your systems can be used in a successful investigation or prosecution.